

SPORTS SCIENCE & MEDICINE TECHNICIAN

Sri Lanka Cricket are recruiting full-time Sports Science & Medicine Technician and Administrator. The roles will involve working within Sri Lanka Cricket’s Sports Science and Medicine Department at the High Performance Centre, R.Premadasa Stadium, Colombo, supporting the department managers with the day to day running of the department.

Responsible to:

- Physical Performance Manager
- Sport Science & Medicine Manager
- High Performance Manager

Main roles and responsibilities:

- Support the department managers with all administrative and logistical support
- Manage the department’s state of the art hardware, including testing equipment, GPS system and rehabilitation equipment
- Facilitate, educate and manage the department’s IT and information sharing systems
- Oversee the daily player physical and wellness monitoring
- Complete performance testing and support the staff with all screening and player profiling
- Liaison between the Sports Science & Medicine Department and external sports science service provider
- Gym and exercise rehabilitation assistant

The successful candidates will demonstrate:

- Ability to identify strategic areas of focus, regarding sports science and medicine logistics and translate into effective operational delivery in terms of planning and development
- Experience in providing and managing sports services to athletes
- Balanced approach to theoretical and practical application of sports science and management
- Flexible and pragmatic approach of the day to day running of an integrated interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary team. This including skills coaches; senior managers; and key stake holders
- Eagerness to develop knowledge and understanding of training principles and exercise modification
- Awareness of growth & maturation and its implications on the development of athlete
- Flexible and approachable personality
- Highly motivated, intellectually robust and charismatic, with the ability to influence others through flexible leadership and professional conviction
- Ability to critically analyse subjective information and objective data to inform practice
- High emotional intelligence and ability to operate effectively under pressure and debate on a highly professional level
- Strong and effective communication skills
- Natural ability to foster professional relationships with relevant parties to promote idea sharing and collaboration with all areas of the multidisciplinary team

Essential requirement:

- BSc in Sports Science, Strength & Conditioning or related industry subject
- Experience of working with high performance athletes
- Basic understanding of Strength & Conditioning programming, periodization and workload management
- Proficient in spoken Sinhalese
- Proficient in written and spoken English
- Excellent practical knowledge of Excel and Power Point
- Safe and effective coaching skills

Desirable requirements:

- Post graduate qualifications Sports Science, Strength & Conditioning or related industry subject
- National certificate in Strength & Conditioning (NSCA/ASCA/UKSCA)
- First Aid Certificate
- Experience of working in a high performance cricket environment
- Experienced with physical testing and monitoring e.g. workload analysis and GPS

Closing Date: Friday 28 February 2020

All applications and enquiries should be emailed to oshini.samarawickrama@srilankacricket.lk